STANLEY GROWS ABUSIVE.
Mr. Stanley in his speech at Georgetown Saturday night again paid his respects to the newspapers. Among other things he is reported to have said that "the editor of The Leader would rather go to a Republican hell than a Democratic heaven." Now this is mighty high correct. There is no telling what the editor of The Leader wouldn't do rather than risk the possibility of being compelled to listen to Owsley's speeches throughout eternity.—Lexington Leader.

HITS THE TANGO MAIDEN A JOLT.
Pope declared, in his "Moral Essays," a long time ago, that most women have no characters at all. Dr. Gilbert Fitzpatrick, of Chicago, is equally condemnatory and less dispassionate.
Dr. Fitzpatrick, addressing the obstetrical section of the American Institute of Homeopathy at Atlantic City, describes society women as follows: "A cigarette-smoking, tango-mad, cocktail-drinking aggregation of mental, moral and physical weaklings, unfit for motherhood and responsible in a high degree for infant mortality."
One might gather from this exhortation that America, or at least the socially prominent part of it, is upon the toboggan slide that leads to the demitition how wows.
Chicago bears the reputation of greater rapidity, and greater vulgarity, than some other American cities of considerable population. But it is improbable that Dr. Fitzpatrick's "home town" is really as bad as he paints it. There is a "Smart Set" so called in nearly all large cities. Among the smarter members the simple old-fashioned virtues that keep the respectable portion of the commonality out of the Police Court are regarded with impatient intolerance. But even in Chicago the smart set is not all of society, and the smart set itself is painted in rather too florid colors by Dr. Fitzpatrick. Not all of its members are so advanced in dissipation or so enamored of the dance that they constitute a race menace.
That women of the type Dr. Fitzpatrick describes are less well qualified to bring up children than those who are less feverishly bent upon the pursuit of pleasure will perhaps not be disputed by obstetricians, or by laymen. But they constitute a rather small proportion of woman kind, and even of the women of what is called "society."
Ignorance and poverty are the twin enemies of children. Their effects ramify in many directions. The infant mortality rate, if Dr. Fitzpatrick will calmly think it over, is not as high in the homes of the class he assails as it is in the tenement districts. Of course, the moral atmosphere in which children of pleasure-mad parents are reared is often much worse than that of the slums.—Courier-Journal.

"Are college students mutts?"—Lincoln Steffans. We shall withhold an expression of opinion until we learn the whereabouts of Mr. Steffans' alma mater.—Montgomery Advertiser.
The bosses at Washington are very indignant because thousands of business men have written to their Congressman and Senators asking Congress to adjourn. Since when did it become a crime for the sovereign people to make requests of their servants in office? It used to be democratic doctrine that the people's right to petition should not be questioned.—Cynthiana Log Cabin.

NEW DANGER.
A Cornell man has injected serum into a goat and made the said goat yield twice her usual output of milk, with a cream that was five times richer than before the treatment.
While thoroughly appreciating the importance of this discovery, and while hesitating in even the slightest way to diminish the glory to its inventor, we deem it our duty to point out its dangers.
If we are going to have our productivity increased by an appropriate serum, where is this thing going to stop?
Under the new regime, every author will be able to write twice as many books as before, every orator speak twice as long and every doctor invent twice as many new diseases. Heaven preserve us!—Life.

THE DAILY NOVELETTE.
The Guilty Party.
Oh, the moon
Beautiful moon;
It tangles up lovers
Forever who spoon.
She had managed to separate him from the rest of the picnickers, and they were walking slowly through the woods.
The moon was full, but Higsbee Saucers was perfectly sober.
"Oh, Mr. Saucers," she twittered, "doesn't the moon fill you with tender thoughts?"
"How do you mean, 'tender thoughts'?" he asked.
"Oh, thoughts of romance, of love—of marriage," she explained coyly.
He thought a moment.
"By Jove!" he exclaimed, "I believe it does!"
They walked awhile in silence, and then she softly said:
"What was that you were saying about love and romance—and marriage?"
"Was I saying anything about him—about them?" he asked uneasily.
"Why, yes! You were talking about the moon, you know, and how it fills you with tender thoughts of romance and love—and marriage. The moon, up there, you know?"
"Ah, yes," he said, looking up thoughtfully. Absently, he put out one arm and she adroitly placed her waist within its half circle.
"Now," she cooed, "what was that about love, and romance and marriage?"
Of course, it ended with him a prisoner for life, but the point of the story is that he always blamed it entirely on the moon.—Louisville Times.

HELP THE KIDNEYS
Maysville Readers Are Learning The Way.
It's the little kidney ills—
The lame, weak or aching back—
The unnoticed urinary disorders—
That may lead to dropsy and Bright's disease.
When the kidneys are weak,
Help them with Doan's Kidney Pills.
A remedy especially for weak kidneys.
Doan's have been used in kidney troubles for 50 years.
Endorsed by 30,000—people—endorsed at home.
Proof in a Maysville citizen's statement.
W. F. Lynch, 127 W. Third St., Maysville, Ky., says: "My Kidneys were weak and the passages of the kidney secretions were scanty and painful. Having used Doan's Kidney Pills before, I again got a box and they quickly restored my kidneys to a normal condition."
Mr. Lynch is only one of many Maysville people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills. If your back aches—If your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for Doan's Kidney Pills, the same that Mr. Lynch had—the remedy backed by home testimony. 50c. all stores. MAY NULLIFY NEW PISTOL TOTTING LAW.

Frankfort.—A test of the act of 1914, adding two years' disfranchisement to the penalty for first conviction for carrying concealed a deadly weapon, will be made by appeal of a case from the Frankfort Police Court, which will reach the Court of Appeals in September.
Assistant Attorney General M. M.
Logan is of the opinion that this added
penalty, although automatic in its operations, increases the penalty for the offense
beyond the jurisdiction of police and magistrate's courts, which are limited to the trial of misdemeanors, the maximum penalty for which is $100 fine and thirty days in jail. Police prosecutors, who are interested in the question, will raise the point that the court
has nothing to do with the penalty,
which is imposed by the General Assembly,
and that the judgment upon conviction is limited to $25 to $100 fine and 10 to 30 days' imprisonment, the disfranchisement attaching as the result and not as a part of the judgment.

President Wilson last week to call at the White House to discuss business

He is understood to agree with the President's opinion that the outlook for business is good.
A different story will be told the President Wednesday by a delegation of leading Chicago business men. They plan to protest to him against certain features of the pending anti-trust measures.
